Nobel may, at any time, and without notice or liability, change, suspend, discontinue or even terminate any aspect, or the availability, of any feature of this website or impose limits on certain of its features, including restricting your access to parts or all, of the website. In the event of termination, you will destroy all materials you have downloaded or copied from this website.

Ownership

The contents of this website are generally owned by Nobel or are made available to you by Nobel under licence from a third party. While Nobel is allowing you access to this website, you acknowledge that your use of that content is governed by applicable copyright, trademark or other intellectual property laws. You also agree that the contents of this website may not be copied for commercial use or distribution, or modified or posted to other websites, without the prior consent from Nobel. Nobel does not grant any express or implied right to you to any of the written content of this website under any existing or theoretical laws or legal theories relating to intellectual property including, without limitation, patent, copyright or trademark.

Nobel may provide links or references to websites operated by third parties. If you access or use these sites through such links or otherwise, you acknowledge that you will be immediately leaving Nobel's website. In visiting any third party sites, whether linked to Nobel's website or otherwise, any consequences thereof will be at your own risk and you assume all responsibility in that regard. Nobel makes no warranty or representation regarding, and does not endorse, any linked website or any content in that website. No third party link on the Nobel website implies that Nobel endorses, or is affiliated or associated with, or is legally authorized to use any trademark, trade name, logo or copyright symbol of the third party link or vice versa.

This website also contains links or references to the quoted price for Nobel's securities, which are listed on the TSX Venture Exchange. Nobel does not warrant either the timeliness or the accuracy of these quotations and does not assume nor will it bear any responsibility for any damages purported to have been incurred by a user relying on such quotations.

Financial and Shareholders

The Nobel website does not intend to offer securities for sale; nor is it intended to solicit investment funds in any jurisdiction. None of the contents of Nobel's website is intended to provide you with any financial, accounting, tax or legal advice nor are the contents the official versions required to be disclosed in accordance with applicable securities laws. There is no guarantee that documents and information contained on this website are current or the most current sources of information, financial or otherwise, about Nobel.

Forward-looking Statements

This website may contain forward-looking information under applicable securities laws concerning Nobel's operations and future financial results. You should note that forward-looking information involves known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results, performance or achievements of Nobel and the business areas in which it operates to differ materially from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied in the forward-looking information.

Forward-looking information includes, but are not limited to, statements with respect to the ability of management to deliver shareholder returns, the estimation of mineral reserves and mineral resources; the realization of mineral reserve estimates; the timing and amount of estimated future production; costs of production; capital expenditures; success of exploration and development activities; permitting timelines and permitting; environmental risks; and title disputes or claims. Generally, forward-looking information can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "plans", "expects" or "does not expect", "is expected", "budget",

"scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "intends", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", or "believes", "projects", or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", "might" or "will be taken", "occur" or "be achieved". Forward-looking statements and forward-looking information are based on the opinions and estimates of management as of the date such statements are made, and they are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, level of activity, performance or achievements of Nobel to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking information, including, but not limited to, unexpected events during operations; risks inherent in the mining industry; key person risks, timing and availability of external financing on acceptable terms; risks relating to international operations; actual results of exploration activities; conclusions of economic valuations; changes in project parameters as plans continue to be refined; and fluctuating metal prices and currency exchange rates. Although management of Nobel Is has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking information, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. There can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking information. Nobel does not undertake to update any forward-looking statements or forward-looking information that are incorporated by reference herein, except in accordance with applicable securities laws.

Except as otherwise specifically stated, Mr. Vernon Arseneau, P. Geo, a director of Nobel, a Qualified Person as defined by NI 43-101 has reviewed and approved the scientific and technical disclosure contained herein.
